2. 28.11.2008 Heard.

The informant of the case was an issueless person. Undisputedly, he gifted some immovable property to his sister who happens to be the wife of the petitioner. The allegation is that not being satisfied with the property which was gifted to the wife the petitioner was requiring the informant to give an amount of Rs. 50,000/- for which he had complied to the concerned Superintendent of Police also. The informant alleged that he had earlier paid an amount of Rs. 91,000/- as well.

The contention is that the petitioner is a retired Veterinary Doctor who is suffering from any ailments. It is contended that on account of being issueless he brought into the house the petitioner so that he is taken care of but he bears a bad tempered person who could file a case on account of no reasons.

Be that as it may, considering that the petitioner is an old person and dispute is between the petitioner and the informant, let the petitioner Shaukat Ali be released on his furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jamui, in Jamui P.S.Case No.123 of 2008.
